BREED THEATER.

Two Big Western Dramas Head the Strong Bill of Pictures at the Breed.

An exceptionally strong and interesting picture of western life, entitled Seven Bars of Gold, is one of the features at the Breed today, and at both yesterday's performances held the undivided attention of very large audiences.

In the plot of Seven Bars of Gold the innocent station and express agent is accused of stealing the bars of gold placed in his hands and care for shipment, and in the dastardly plan concocted for the occasion his sweetheart is pressed into service. She comes to the assistance of her lover at the last moment, and produces the gold, for the theft of which he is accused. Things look pretty dark for him up to this moment, but his innocence is soon established, and the guilty party sentenced to justice.

A powerful story of heart interest is entitled When Duty Calls, being a great American Pathé production, telling of a burglar whose little child is dangerously ill at the poverty-stricken home. The burglar's wife hurries to the doctor's office and gets him to agree to come to her house. While there the burglar forces an entrance into the doctor's apartments, wounding the doctor in the attempt. He does not know it is the doctor that is to attend his child, and not until he reaches home does he find the cruel error of his way, finding the faithful doctor attending the sick child, while the doctor's wife has tenderly bound the wounds made by her desperate husband. In the end the burglar returns the stolen money and deposits, turning upon beginning a new and better life.

NEW SHOW AT THE AUDITORIUM TODAY.

Today is the last day to see this week's issue of The Animated Weekly, the most famous film in the world. This film is drawing patrons to the Auditorium who never in a theater before, and it is claimed by famous editorial authorities to be the greatest instructive factor the world has ever known. This week's Animated Weekly shows the floods in the Mississippi valley, which have caused so much destruction and loss of life, Young's Million Dollar Pier Fire at Atlantic City, The Eastern Parade in Atlantic City, and Fifth Avenue, N. Y. Harry Houdini jumping into the river handcuffed and emerging unharmed in 30 seconds, military aerial manoeuvres in France and other items.

One of the most popular teams that have ever played this city are Niblo and Kelly, the funny blackface comedians, who play a return engagement the last half of this week.

A good novelty act is provided by George W. Moore, the whirlwind juggling clown. The third act is Wynar and Shneider, a new singing, dancing and dancing duo, who present a bright, clean, pleasing act that will be well received.

This week's Animated Weekly is No. 5, and the Auditorium shows one every week, on numbers 4 and 7 some of the Titanic scenes will be shown, in fact every possible view that could be obtained and was "caught" by the camera men, and it is the "biggest" "score" in the history of "animated pictures."

By the way, another big show next week.

POLI'S BROADWAY THEATER.

Quartette Contest Tonight.

Tonight at the big theater the best male quartettes of Norwich are invited to compete for supremacy and a substantial prize. If you like "barbershop choruses" or "four part harmony" or a test. Three good quartettes are already booked. In addition to each special feature, Mr. Tom Casey, tenor, of Boston, will be heard. Mr. Casey possesses a natural tenor voice of rare beauty, a sweet, ringing, ringing variety of kinds of songs. He is sure to be a favorite. Special attention is invited to the new pictures every day idea, which has already proved a success.

Tomorrow night amateur night. Prices always 5 and 10.

QUINEBAUG POMONA

Will Meet at North Windham With Meadow Brook Grange April 27.

Quinebaug Pomona Grange will meet at North Windham, Sunday April 27, 1912. To first special meeting of the year for conferring the Fifth Degree will be held with Meadow Brook Grange, North Windham instead of at Willimantic as originally planned. Grange will be opened in the fifth degree at 2:30 the meeting being held in the church, near the station. The grange will pass to the fourth degree and the Lecturers' program will be given from 10:15 to 11:15 in the morning.

The lecture program follows: flute solo, O. E. Colburn, Meadow Brook Grange; recitation, Miss Rogers; address, Parson Post, Hon. George B. Candor; vocal solo, Miss Lillian B. Berry, Instructor in Music, Conn. Agr. College; recitation, Miss Mary Rogers, Instructor in Education, Conn. Agr. College; address and exhibition of standard portions of Prose, Miss Maude E. Hayes, Professor of Domestic Economy, at the College vocal duet, Miss Berry and Mr. Wheeler.

1:30 in grange hall, conferring the fifth degree in full form. Chas. Tucker acting as pianist. All candidates are invited to the morning program in fourth degree and should be on hand promptly for invitation after dinner.

The closing exercises will include a "John solo" by L. J. Moffit, master of Shetucket grange, bird calls by Nelson Prink and remarks by visiting members of the order.

Forestry Association Annual.

By invitation of the New Haven Water company, the annual meeting of the Connecticut Forestry association will be held Saturday, May 4, 1912, at New Haven. The morning session will be held at the Connecticut agricultural experiment station, the afternoon session at Matthys park. The order of exercises follows: 10:30 a. m.—Inspection of station nursery. 11 a. m.—Reports of officers and annual election. Lunch on basket picnic plan. 2 to 4 p. m.—Inspection of forestry work of the New Haven Water company at Matthys park, conducted by Prof. R. C. Hawley of the Yale forestry school.

This meeting will be of special interest, since the water company has

Catarrh of Stomach

Indigestion and Stomach Agony Quickly Ended

If you went to thirty doctors and paid each his fee for a prescription for indigestion or stomach misery it is ten times as much as you would get such a good prescription as the one from which M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets are made.

How can such a thing be? you naturally ask.

Simply because the man who wrote the prescription from which M-I-O-N-A tablets are made knows more about stomach diseases than 96 per cent. of all the physicians in America, and he gets paid for knowing.

And when you can get a large box of tablets made from this doctor's prescription for only 50 cents, are you going to continue to suffer? Sold by The Lee & Osgood Co. and druggists everywhere.

been practicing forestry on the Malby tract for eleven years. Some of the woodlands have received two thinnings, and there are numerous forest plantations.

BULLETIN'S PATTERN SERVICE.

A large work apron that comes well over the waist is indispensable to the busy housewife. This one of striped percale is not only a protection to the dress but it is neat and attractive as well. The bib is in jersey knit and broadens out over the shoulders in a most becoming way. The apron is cut in three pieces: Small, medium and large. It requires 4 1/2 yards of 25-inch material for the medium size.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Order through The Bulletin Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.
